

Lighting Design in Heritage Buildings and Environment

A Master Class course at KTH STH Lighting Laboratory, Stockholm, in co-operation with The National Property Board and The Swedish National Heritage Board with focus on Riddarholmen, in the city centre of Stockholm.

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Riddarholmen>

Requirements:

MA degree in Architectural Lighting Design, or Architecture with a documented experience in the field.

Date: 30th of September- 20th of November -12 ECTS credits

Admission: agneta.ejhed@sth.kth.se for more information

The Master Class course is for free

Responsible teacher:

Professor Jan Ejhed, Architect MSA, Lighting Designer PLDA and invited guest teachers and workshop leaders

KTH Technology and Health

